

To apply visit:
<https://ksmedcenter.bamboohr.com/jobs/view.php?id=263>

Position:
Dietitian - PRN

Classification:
Non-Exempt

Reports to:
Department Manager

Supervisory Responsibility:
Position does not have supervisory responsibilities.

Education/Training:
Bachelor's Degree in Dietetics or related field required

Licensure and Certification Requirements:
Dietitian License issued by Kansas Department of Health and Environment required.

Experience Required:
At least one year of similar experience required.

Position Summary:
Responsible for the nutritional assessment, care, and education of patients in accordance with applicable federal, state, and local standards, guidelines, regulations, and established hospital policies and procedures. Ensures quality nutritional care is provided at all times.

Other Duties:
Please note this job description is not designed to cover or contain a comprehensive listing of activities, duties or responsibilities that are required of the employee for this job, and that other duties may be assigned by the supervisor at any time. Duties, responsibilities and activities may change at any time with or without notice, however Kansas Medical Center will strive to notify employees of changes to their job description within a timely manner, and will require an updated signature for any changes to job descriptions.

Competencies:

1. Must be skilled in: preparing and maintaining records, writing reports, and responding to correspondence; general administrative and clerical tasks; general computers and technology; project management; attention to detail; and critical thinking.
2. Must be able to: demonstrate exceptional customer service skills; treat patients and patients' family with respect and must not ignore, insult, argue, or offend anyone; and demonstrate appropriate and professional phone, electronic, and other communication etiquette.
3. Must possess ability to: utilize exceptional organizational and time management skills to handle multiple and sometimes conflicting priorities and deadlines; be detail-oriented; work semi-independently with minimal supervision; react calmly and effectively in difficult, stressful, and emergency situations; demonstrate good judgment, problem solving, and decision-making skills; and have cognitive ability in math, reading, and technology.
4. Must possess excellent written and verbal communication skills to clearly relay and retain information to and from coworkers, doctors, patients, patients' families, and the public in order to develop and maintain effective working relationships with patients, medical staff, and the community
5. All KMC employees must be able to: work in a team-oriented and collaborative environment; demonstrate commitment to service, organizational values, and professionalism by demonstrating appropriate conduct and demeanor; interpret, follow, and apply organizational policies, guidelines, and procedures; follow safety procedures, policies, regulations, and take precautions to establish a safe and orderly environment; work well under pressure with a sense of urgency; and maintain confidentiality and discretion to remain in accordance with HIPAA regulations.

6. Must possess knowledge of: professional theory, practices, and regulations as well as knowledge of medical equipment and instruments; taking medical history, assessing medical condition and interpreting findings; and administering a variety of medications and/or treatments as directed; and knowledge of medications and their effects on patients.

Work Environment:

This position operates in a typical temperature-controlled hospital environment. Work environment generally includes moderate-to-high risk of exposure to blood/ bodily fluids. Risk generally includes moderate-to-high risk of exposure to infectious disease. This position does include occupational risk of exposure to tuberculosis (Category 2). This position includes a moderate to high risk of exposure to Hepatitis B.

Physical Requirements:

While performing the duties of this job, the employee is regularly required to talk and hear; occasionally required to sit for long periods of time; regularly required to stand for long periods of time; regularly required to use hands to handle, grasp, or feel objects, tools, and controls; regularly required to walk or use other means of mobility; occasionally required to reach with hands and arms above head and below waist; occasionally required to kneel, stoop, and crouch; and occasionally required to use push and pull motion. The employee must frequently be able to lift or move up to 50 pounds using proper lifting techniques. The employee is required, with or without corrective lenses, to have visual acuity to perform activities such as: preparing and analyzing data and figures; transcribing; viewing a computer terminal; extensive reading; visual inspection; operation of machines; investigating and assessing; determining accuracy, neatness, and thoroughness of work; and to make general observations.

For questions about position please contact:

Morgan Hook MS, RD, LD

Morgan.hook@ksmedcenter.com

316-300-4223